
Brian Kelley
Senior Vice President

Brian Kelley is a retired Coast Guard Captain. During his first career, his multi-mission experience ranged from Coast Guard afloat commands and shore-based Captain of the Port operations to command centers, human resource management, contingency planning, and budgeting. He is a certified master instructor and facilitator whose second career has focused on organization, team, and individual performance improvement and reliability in both government and industry

bkelly@hrsconsults.com