
Peter McHugh
VP Operations

Peter McHugh, PMP is a retired Army Medical Service Corps Colonel, Pete McHugh participated in nine combat and operational deployments as an Aeromedical Evacuation pilot and Joint Medical Planner. His significant military assignments include Chief, Operations for the US Army Medical Command (USAMEDCOM), Commander, US Army Garrison-Walter Reed Army Medical Center (USAG-WRAMC), Chief of Staff US Army Warrior Transition Command (WTC) and Army Wounded Warrior Program (AW2), and Director, Healthcare Operations for the US Army Office of The Surgeon General (USA OTSG). A certified Project Management Professional (PMP) his second career has focused on leading Healthcare support projects within the Department of Defense (DoD), the Defense Healthcare Agency (DHA), and the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA).

pmchugh@hrsconsults.com